

Brett Tarnet Bio

Brett Tarnet has been the owner of Brett Tarnet Insurance Services since 2004. The company specializes in Trade Credit (Receivables) insurance. The Export Import Bank of the United States took the unprecedented step of awarding the Small Business Broker of the Year Award to the company in 2006, after less than 2 years of operations. Brett Tarnet Insurance Services' clients are small and mid-sized businesses in the Western United States.

Brett has also acted as adjunct professor at California State University Northridge , teaching export management courses.

Brett enjoyed a successful career in marketing and operations prior to becoming an export credit insurance broker, working for industrial and technology products companies. Brett has an MBA (Finance) from UCLA's Anderson School, and Bachelor's Degree from California Lutheran University, in Marketing.