

CHRISTEL VILOGRON - IEBP GLOBAL TRADE COMPLIANCE

Christel Vilogron, Partner and Principal Consultant of Orange County-based IEBP Global Trade Compliance (IEBP), brings 25 years of combined export compliance experience and knowledge accumulated while in leadership roles in both federal and private sectors across various industries.

With this background she founded IEBP in 2009, where she enjoys solving arrays of mundane to extreme and unusual export compliance situations, such as sanctions under the Export Administration Regulations (EAR), International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) and Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC) regulations. Among others, she advises on export licensing, export strategies, process improvement, risk assessments, commodity jurisdiction/classification, voluntary disclosures, Technology Control Plans, Compliance Manuals, training and audits. Her export compliance audit record includes up to 1,000 government and/or company-directed assessments.

Appointed by then U.S. Secretary of Commerce William M. Daley, Christel served on the President's Export Council Subcommittee on Export Administration (PECSEA). The current U.S. Secretary of Commerce Penny Pritzker appointed Christel to serve on the District Export Council of Southern California until 2017. She is a Board Director of the Foreign Trade Association (FTA), and a member of the ICPA, SIA, NAPW and WIT-LA, where she was the VP in 2015.

Christel has a B.A. in International Relations. She is fluent in German and speaks basic Spanish and French.
